MORE RESOURCES for Recruiting Women and Traditionally Underrepresented Ethnic Faculty Candidates

- MinorityPostdoc.org is a new subscription-based minority recruiting source for faculty (especially STEM fields) and post-docs.
- ScholarlyHires.com is a new and low cost recruiting source for all higher education jobs with significant participation by women and minority candidates.
- American Indian Graduate Center hosts a professional organization, fellowship and post-doctoral listings, and a magazine in which job postings can be advertised.
- The Faculty for the Future Project is administered by WEPAN (The Women in Engineering Program and Advocates Network), and offers a free forum for students to post resumes and search for positions and for employers to post positions and search for candidates. The website focuses on linking women and underrepresented minority candidates from engineering, science, and business with faculty and research positions at universities.
- The Ford Foundation Fellows is an on-line directory of minority PhDs in the fields of education, EMP Sciences, history, philosophy, languages, literature, humanities, life sciences, psychology and social sciences. Administered by the National Research Council (NRC). The directory contains information on Ford Foundation Postdoctoral fellowship recipients awarded since 1980 and Ford Foundation Predoctoral and Dissertation fellowship recipients awarded since 1986. This database does not include Ford Fellows whose fellowships were administered by an institution or agency other than the NRC.
- IMDiversity.com is dedicated to providing career and self-development information to all minorities, specifically African Americans, Asian Americans, Hispanic Americans, Native Americans and women. It maintains a large database of available jobs, candidate resumes and information on workplace diversity.
- Latinos in Higher Ed is the first Latino professional employment web site designed specifically for the higher education community, and helps employers connect with the largest pool of Latino professionals in higher education in the United States, Puerto Rico and internationally by disseminating employment opportunities to registered candidates and a national network of Latino-serving organizations and listservs.
- National Association of African American Studies and Affiliates (including Hispanic and Latino Studies, Native American Studies, Asian Studies) offers job postings.
- National Employment Minority Network (NEMNet) is a national minority recruitment firm committed to helping schools and organizations in the identification and recruitment of minority candidates. Since 1994 it has worked with over 200 schools, colleges and universities and organizations. It posts academic jobs on its website and gathers vitas from students and professionals of color.
- Women in Higher Education is a journal for women in academia, dedicated to exploring how gender affects success. They will post faculty and administrative job ads online.
- The CIC Doctoral Directory is a listing of doctoral degree recipients who are members of groups underrepresented in higher education and who are alumni of the universities of the Committee on Institutional Cooperation. The Directory is designed to increase the visibility of doctoral alumni who bring diverse perspectives and experiences to higher education. The Directory will be promoted among hiring committees at CIC member universities, and the searchable, online database will be freely available to the public.
- The The National Registry of Diverse & Strategic Faculty was established in 1985, with over 1,000 open faculty positions posted last year and more than 1,500 diverse candidates. The REGISTRY is the premier national database of diverse & strategic faculty sponsored by a major university. The REGISTRY is committed to connecting the most diverse and qualified pool of candidates to colleges and universities around the country. The National Registry of Diverse & Strategic Faculty (The REGISTRY) connects institutions of higher education with diverse faculty candidates. Most recently, our host institution, earned the Higher Education Excellence in Diversity Award in 2014.

- The Nemnet is a national minority recruitment firm committed to helping schools and organizations in the identification and recruitment of minority candidates. Nemnet posts jobs on its web site and gathers CVs from students and professionals of color.
- The HBCU Connect is a job recruitment site for students and alumni of historically black colleges and universities.